BOLSA BOOMING.

OBRAS BECOMING METEORIC.

Montevideo, March 27.

Obras rose to-day to 60 closing at 53.

Nationals quiet. Big advance expected. Thirty thousand shares short. Four points have been paid for loan of shares for end of month. Closed at 152.

REOPENING OF THE BOLSA.

Yesterday the Bolsa was reopened, having remained shut since last Thursday evening by order of the Government. The interval was sufficiently long to convince the public of the great necessity and high utility of this institution to the trade and commerce of this market, since during the cloture many branches of business were brought to a stand still, and others were marked dead slow. In fact it must be apparent to all, after the experience of the last few days that under proper restriction, the Bolsa is a necessity to this market and without it we cannot, at least in B. Ayres, get along.

Merchants need it for a centre, ship brokers for a rendezvous, and capitalists and "rentistas" for a pleasant spot to pass a few hours conversing on the various topics of the day, and the ordinary affairs of River Plate life. In fact we all one way or the other need the Bolsa, and to overlook its utility and influences is to fall into a very grave error, which would be fatal to any statesman. We all want the Bolsa, we all must support the Bolsa, but we can never consent to the prostitution of its influences by a ring of speculators who carried gold speculation to such extremes that the credit of the country was injured and the solvency of the market jeopardized.

Due to the heavy month's liquidation in gold, and the innumeral accounts to be made up, the chief business on 'Change yesterday was conducted "sub rosa," but next week when all the "barrullo" of the liquidation is over we look forward to a very changed atmosphere on the Bolsa. All the small speculators in gold will have to start for "pastures new" and the real, bona fide commission brokers will have more orders to attend to than before.

The gigantic speculation going on in Centros Agricolas, fomented by the Provincial Mortgage Bank, must be stopped, unless the object be to smash that bank, which object can never be countenanced by any of our public men, as the mortgage Bank properly managed and administered is a beneficent institution ; but the growth of the Cedula rivals that of the gold speculation, and the same hand that has saved the Bolsa from the ruin to which the unbridled gold speculation was plunging it should now stop the Centro Agricola scandal, which if tolerated much longer must bring down the whole fabric of Provincial credit.

PROTECTION FOR SPAIN.

HEALTH OF THE RIVIERA.

Antibes, Feb. 19th.

Yesterday's telegrams announce that the Spanish Government has resolved to denounce all existing Treaties of Commerce, which terminate about 1892, and to notify all European States that the new treaties after that date will be framed with a view to impose much heavier duties on foreign merchandise. The reason alleged is two-fold. Agriculture is at a low ebb, owing to the influx of foreign grain and meat, in spite of existing tariffs and duties. Manufacturers complain that the sugar-mills and cotton-mills will have to close their doors unless prohibitory duties be imposed.

Spain is not the only country that uses language of this description. There is a similar outcry all over the Continent. Every nation is building up commercial barriers against the rest, under the banner and watchword of Protection. Even in England the Tories would do the same if they dared. There is a kind of common consent that commerce is ruinous to mankind, and that an interchange of commodities produces universal distress. If each country resolve to take little or nothing from its neighbour, how can it hope to dispose of its products? Nevertheless, this Paraguayan idea of economy has gained ground among the masses, and even among journalists, and we cannot at present see what ruinous complications this new insanity may lead to.

It is the victory of crass ignorance, of barbarism pure and simple. The riots in the last century at the introduction of machinery in France and England were caused by reasons no less plausible, but they were solely acts of the mob. At present educated men are trying by might and main to check commerce, as the basis of all evil. No country has suffered in late years more than Spain, by her absurd fiscal system, which imposes such heavy import dues that two-thirds of the vessels entering her ports are in ballast. This compels ship-owners to charge double freights on all merchandise that leaves Spain for other countries. It is, moreover, computed that 100,000 contrabandistas live by smuggling, instead of doing honest labor.

Little use can there be in talking political economy to a Spaniard, when he sees French, Germans and other people adopting Protection. What all these people fail to understand is that Protection is an inclined plane : you cannot stop midway, for all classes feel the strain that is caused by trammels put on Trade, and not discerning the cause they rush wildly into the evil for a remedy. Duties grow heavier year by year, and yet the public discontent is unmitigated. Spain is an eloquent example of the curse that Protection is to a country which has products to export : her trade is crippled, her taxation tremendous, her poverty supreme. The Government, or rather the monarch whoever he or she may be, is blamed for everything, Spain has dethroned two monarchs in the last twenty years, besides trying a Republic and rejecting it.

No wonder that the taxes are high, when every soldier's tunic and policeman's uniform costs £5, made in Spain, while the same could be bought in Manchester for one fourth the sum! If Spaniards must be manufacturers in woollen and cotton goods let them make up their minds to pay dearly for the amusement. The agricultural resources and the mining wealth of the country are not developed, because there are no roads. If they devoted half the labour and expenditure on roads which they have wasted in cotton-mills and sugar-mills three times the actual tonnage of shipping would find cargoes of Spanish grain, fruit and wines in the seaports of the Peninsula.

The Riviera from Hyéres to San Remo is perhaps the most delightful part of the Globe, whether you consider the beautiful scenery, rich vegetation, genial climate or the comfort offered to travellers seeking health or a period of repose from overtaxed exertions. But in almost every favored resort of this enchanted coast there has been such complete disregard of hygienic laws that typhoid fever has its lair in the midst of surrounding charms. Some people come here in tolerable health, and die. Others return to England with the seeds of disease, which afterwards result fatally. Others are unaffected, being strong, and merely complain of the intolerable smells that assail you at all times and places, especially Cannes at early morn and dewy eve.

There is so far one exception, this Cape of Antibes, which runs out two miles into the Mediterranean and is little built upon. The hotel where I write, on the extreme of the Cape, the sea dashing up within a few yards of the portico, enjoys an unrivalled position, and has no drawback but the high winds that sweep the point. Some travellers who have come here from Hyéres give that place a doubtful name, though I cannot say it is subject to typhoid fever. St. Raphael is better, and more bracing, especially that part known as Valescure. Cannes is in my opinion very unhealthy and much to be avoided ; only last week Miss. Holland died there of typhoid, and her mother and sisters are now here. Golfe Juan, on this side of Cannes is safe, and for those who like a sheltered place, shut in by hills, nothing could be better.

As for Nice it has earned a bad reputation, but is much frequented for its gaiety, its clubs, and its proximity to Monte Carlo. I understand that it smells as bad as Mentone. There is a book recently published, called Robert Elsmere, in which the hero is returning from Italy, but "one whim of the Cannes air was enough for him," laying him low with a raging fever. I quite agree with the author, though I neither know his name nor have seen his book. Mr. Hardy of Buenos Ayres is now at Nice, and if these lines reach his eye I hope he will give his opinion of that place.

There are many English doctors at all these places, who have got up a story that the smell at Cannes etc. is caused by seaweed. It is strange that seaweed here should take exactly the smell "of a dead Patagonian," as Lady Florence Dixie said. Besides, seaweed does not go up the hillsides a mile from shore. I am told that some of the hotels about Cannes have large cesspools, covered over in the garden. You cannot tell where the smell comes from, but it is very offensive after sundown. People in Cannes, however, live in such a whirl of dinners, balls and parties that they think nothing of hygiene. They are off at the close of the season, back to London, and the few native inhabitants that remain do not concern themselves about municipal sanitation. Meantime at the Cape of Antibes, we have the most delightful air and scenery that you can imagine.

LONDON LETTER.

From our own Correspondent

THE CLASS CONSPIRACY FAILING.

THE WITNESS PIGOTT.

OPENING OF PARLIAMENT,

THE ARGENTINE LOAN AND SUNDRIES.

February 22.

I was in hopes that the cross examination of the man Pigott would have been concluded to-day, but Sir Charles Russell seems disposed to leave nothing to chance in his vindication of Mr. Parnell and goes quietly on in his exposure of Messrs. Smith Walter and Co.'s now notorious witness, who opened the bag which contained the letters he sold to Houston, who sold them to the Times, that sold itself and apparently its whole list of respectable subscribers. Such at least is the opinion of the clubs after the two days' cross examination of Pigott. "It is all up with the Times" one hears again and again. And already in the newspapers we see little paragraphs, such as this :—"The expenses of the Parnell commission will not fall on the Times shareholders. The costs of the proceedings will be borne by Mr. Walter himself, even if he be obliged to sell his Bearwood estate to pay them." This of course is an exaggeration. We have not got to that yet. We have still to receive the testimony of the experts in regard to the alleged forged letters, and it is for that and the appearance of Mr. Parnell in the witness-box, which Sir Charles is carefully preparing. But the break-down of Houston, and again of the impecunious lying renegade Pigott, as far as his evidence has gone, almost leads to the hope that the judges will stop the case without calling upon Mr. Parnell at all. Such was the confusion of Pigott at the conclusion of yesterday's proceedings in court that they closed amidst shouts of laughter. To-day they ended more flatly, as the time of the court was being taken up with the reading of letters from Pigott, Egan, Parnell and others with the object of showing that in the compromising letters alleged to have been written by Mr. Parnell, the spelling is the faulty spelling of Mr. Pigott—in such words as "hesitency" and "likelehood," and the phraseology is borrowed from other letters written to Mr. Pigott by Mr. Parnell on matters of business in relation to the purchase of a newspaper. Pigott, for the present, adheres to his statement that the letters were not forged by him. Mr. Pigott seems to have been hard up for many years of his life and to have lived latterly by his wits and by black-mailing. One of his victims was "that failure" Forster, from whom he got £100 for information against the League. It is astonishing that shrewd men, like Mr. Macdonald, the manager of the Times, and Mr. W. H. Smith could have put their heads together and run the risks of publication of "Parnellism and Crime," and of the present commission, on information which, as far as the trial has yet proceeded, seems to be derived from the very scum of the streets of Dublin and New York. The name of "Pigott," shouted by Irish members and accompanied by the unusual parliamentary mode of demonstration—hisses, greeted Mr. Balfour as he entered the House of Commons yesterday amidst the thundering cheers of his supporters. They may cheer and the young Irish secretary, who is positively growing grey, may smile his watery smile and feign sleep whilst Mr. John Morley denounces the cruelty and injustice of the treatment of Ireland by the present government, but he and his friends are "pigotted," as sure as fate, unless the proceedings at the Parnell commission take another and very unlikely turn. It is curious that so many of the new words which have lately enriched our language should end in "ott"—boycotting, ondicotting, pigotting &c. They are derivations from English and west country names. The Tory government, whilst adopting the cynicism and sneering air of indifference assumed by its figure-heads, uncle and nephew, have foreseen what was coming and have looked about for an antidote. They had great difficulty in persuading Mr. Goschen to join them in their new cry, but that difficulty surmounted, they left off their grand piece a few days before the opening of parliament. "This session is to be devoted to National defence." Hence the sensational rumour in the Morning Post that the government was to ask for 100 millions, an amount which was afterwards reduced to nine or ten millions, and now stands at fifteen millions. Mr. Gladstone, in replying to the movers of the address, reminded the government that in other countries such a sudden and unusual expenditure in military preparations meant war! He called for explanations. The explanations are not yet forthcoming, but I must say the government dodge is a very clever one, as war or no war it tallies precisely with public feeling and amongst all parties, and is a splendid electioneering trick, as it ensures the support to the government of the dockyards and the great cities of Birmingham, Sheffield, Newcastle, Glasgow, Manchester and Liverpool, which have all been insidiously promised beforehand a share of the spoils. If Mr. Gladstone and Mr. John Morley attempt to oppose the government in that measure and upon old-fashioned and, I confess, only so-called Cobdenian principles, they will pigott themselves. The "Defences Cry" is nevertheless an obvious trick on the part of the government, for, was it not the very man Stanhope himself who has been lately frightening us with war's alarms, who two years ago in reply to the agitation on the state of our navy assured us that our defences were never so strong, and admitted only that the failure in the supply of breach-loading guns was a "public scandal." Did they not get Mr. Forwood and Lord Brassey then and again this week to compare notes favourably with the navies of other countries, and did not Lord Salisbury only the other day send down Goschen to the East end to assure the people that Mr. Stanhope's prophecy of approaching war in Europe was a mistake? In the forthcoming explanations the government will fall back upon the recent report of the naval manœuvres commission and will say they are sorry they were mistaken two years ago, and that they now find that, although by the able management of the foreign policy of Europe by the Marquis of Salisbury, peace is assured, a preliminary military expenditure of nine or ten or fifteen millions will be required at once, and that, as the newspapers report to-day, Sheffield and Birmingham as well as Portsmouth and Chatham are already working day and night. Meanwhile, the Morier incident and the Sackville incident and the little affairs in Zanzibar and Samoa have all been arranged, and, as the German Chancellor's own luck would have it, we hear to-day that the filibustering Cossack Atchinoff has been bombarded out of French territory on the Red Sea, by the French admiral. This news is not yet confirmed, but if true, it will not improve the relations of the French Republic with Russia, although the Cossack is not supposed to have received any 'letters of marque' from the Russian government. His mission was said to be religious rather than political. This affair would otherwise be awkward for the working-jeweller of Rue Sebastopol, M. Tirard, and his newly patched up Cabinet, which is not even an "Exhibition cabinet." M. de Freycinet, who is still Minister of War, intends, no doubt, to be the exhibition premier if General Boulanger puts in no appearance.

Whilst the prospects of the French Republic are a little cloudy, it is pleasant to her well wishers to know by recent statistics that all the croakings of the Monarchists and Imperialists about the decline of Paris as the world-capital of taste, pleasure and fashion are refuted. Paris was never so rich as she is now. She was never so gay; if gaiety is permitted to be possible to a people apart from a court. The receipts of the theatres and of the shops have under the Republic been double what they were under the Empire. Moreover, the reputation France lost under the Empire of being la grande ecole militaire amongst nations, she is regaining under the Republic. General Wolseley, in addressing a military college in England the other day, mentioned as a significant fact that the latest drill instructions in the German army are copied from the French. France is also first in the field in new appliances and repeating rifles, a fact which has contributed to keep the peace of Europe.

Feb. 23, 5 p. m.

The Temps explains in regard to the Atchinoff expedition to the Red Sea that the French Admiral before expelling the Russian filibusters by force applied three times to his government for instructions. Meanwhile the French Cabinet had sent telegrams to St. Petersburg, and were assured that Atchinoff had no authority to fly the Russian flag at Sagallo, or was he in any way officially recognized by the Russian Government.

The Argentine 4½ per cent conversion loan is said to have been successful. If so, its five millions sterling, more or less, have dropped into this market without causing a splash or ripple. There are none of the usual newspaper paragraphs announcing that the Argentine loan had been subscribed for so many times over and above the required amount. Peradventure the era of such nonsense is gone by. Such sponsors as Barings, Murrietta and the French bank interested in its issue are strong enough to support the already good credit of the Argentine Government without boasting announcements, and with the full understanding that the outside public knows all about syndicates and the modes in which these operations are now conducted. The only newspapers that notice the issue are the two leading financial journals, the Statist and Economist, of to-day, and their remarks are not flattering. The article in the Statist, which I enclose, seems only to object to the scheme of the conversion from the Argentine Government standpoint. Your contemporary thinks a five per cent loan at par would have suited the Government better than a 4½ per cent loan at 90. For if the credit of the Government is good enough to borrow at 5 per cent—which is the actual rate it pays issuing a 4½ per cent loan at 90—it would have been able as its credit still further improved to have effected by and bye another conversion without the additions that have been made to the capital of the debt by the scheme just launched. The Statist, however, again harps on your cedulas and land speculations, and in short does not think you are good enough for a five per cent loan, or at all events taking into consideration the rapid improvement in business in this country and the great probability of a speculative as well as a legitimate demand for money arising in London; and further considering the possibilities of a terrible war in Europe resulting in a dire destruction of wealth, the Statist advises its readers to wait for metal more attractive than 5 per cent from the Argentine Republic.

The Economist is more nasty. It looks upon your scheme of conversion as a mere trick for deferring your debts. It compares your methods very unfavourably with the conversions recently accomplished by Mr Goschen in England and by the French and other European Governments.

In my letter of yesterday I alluded to the prosperous condition of France under the Republic in spite of the dissensions and unsteadiness in its parliamentary Government. I find in a correspondence from Berlin in the Statist the following in allusion to the hold that Paris has got of the Russian loans, much to the regret of the Berlin operators. The business between Paris and London is equally large. The correspondent says: "These quotations may show you how closely the action of Paris is watched here, and the many remarks which you may hear and read here are sufficient proof that the growing ascendency of Paris after a rather passive attitude for many years by which Berlin obtained valuable advantages in transactions in foreign funds is not at all relished here."

Although the Berlin conference on the Samoan question is duly appointed to meet in the autumn, there are very persistent rumours that the German squadron in the Mediterranean has orders to sail for Samoa on the shortest notice. The rumour does not seem probable but it comes from Italy and from Port Said. It would not concern Englishmen if they were sure of Lord Salisbury. He is a clever man and a good man but of a venemous nature as his conduct in the Sackville incident proved. His hatred of Liberalism and of republics is not of the common Tory cast—that is a hatred such as a Bostonian might feel towards a coloured gentleman. Lord Salisbury's prejudices are more rational and more dangerous. He is sufficient liberal himself to appreciate the strength of liberal opinions and know their tendancies. His alliance with the Bismarcks gives him the courage he does not possess when unsupported; and I have no hesitation in accusing Lord Salisbury of harbouring the thought that when the tocsin in Europe is sounded he will be able to lay the British guns alongside those of Germany in the new as well as in the old world and for one purpose and in one cause, that of stemming the tide of Liberal opinion which he knows has but one issue, the destruction of that historic structure of society, in which constitutional monarchies arose and Cecils flourished. The stars in their courses are against him. The failure of the class conspiracy against the Irish nationalists should warn him and has warned him. His last card is "National Defence." If he succeeds this country will be involved in wars opposed to the spirit and sympathies of the commercial as well as those of the lower classes. It will be Pitt and George III again, but under different conditions and the issue may be different.

I send you some interesting rumours about Stanley who is supposed to have the ambition of joining his forces with those of Emin Pasha in the idea of taking Khartoum and delivering the Soudan from the power of the Mahdi. Stanley seems by the same rumour to have arrived at Wadelai in the forlorn state and instead of his relieving Emin, Emin relieved him.

In case of the Parnell Commission being decided in favour of the Nationalist leaders there is already a talk of prosecuting the Times and perhaps Mr. W. H. Smith for conspiracy.

Colonel North though absent himself and on his way to Chile has made a fine debut in the Sporting world. His two dogs "Fullerton" and "Troughend" have divided between them the Waterloo coursing cup. If the horses Lord Rosebery and others are purchasing or have purchased for him are as lucky he will on his return to town have no occasion to give another fancy ball at the Metropolis. The ribands of the Turf will be as distinguishing in society as the order of the Garter.

MINISTER VARELA'S PREAMBLE

I believe that I have proved that the supply and demand of gold dollars on the Stock Exchange is not the supply and demand to which the gold market would have to be adjusted if Exchange gambling operations did not take place, causing a rise or a fall in the value of paper which affects everyone, and has resolved itself into the winning of a difference payable in money to speculators either for the fall or the rise.

If the gold market is to remain subject to these bets and gambling operations no one can buy or sell gold outside the Stock Exchange without exposure to losses inflicted by the speculators according to their power of varying the relation of paper money to gold. Thus the factor of the tea requirements of gold coin will not be that which regulates its value in relation to the legal currency, but that which results from the necessities created artificially by gambling in differences, whose magnitude no one can foresee, since in a month of 28 days, on two Stock Exchanges, it has amounted to $35,000,000 or $1,000,000,000 in a year, a sum ten times greater than the yearly commerce of importation, and than the total value of note circulation of all the banks.

What will happen if the State continues to tolerate this gambling in the value of its money, on the day that every province or city establishes a Stock Exchange and all do as do those of the Capital and of Rosario? How much gold will be absorbed by this gambling; how much capital will be diverted from the productive element, and how much longer will be delayed the period for the return to conversion of the bank note?

Considering, after a prolix study, that it is indispensable to return to the commercial market, to the general market, the control of the supply and demand of exchange between gold coin and paper money so that the market, which is the community, may regulate their relative value, just as it regulates the price of the international exchange, I propose that the so-called operations or quotations of gold on the Stock Exchanges should be suppressed, and every such operation should be considered a game of chance, whether made in them or in meetings of public or private institutions which may be established for that purpose with the intention of quoting the value of the two forms of money which the nation has given itself. I propose to suppress all the operations in gold on the Stock Exchange, whether for cash or for the account, because this is the only way of suppressing the gambling in differences; for although the operations for cash cause less important variations, there is the possibility of forcing the market, between the first and the last moments of "the wheel" because he who buys and sells knows beforehand that he will not require capital to carry out his operations for cash, and that, if he lose, that is to say, if he sell at the last moment at a lower price than that at which he bought at the first moment, he will only have to pay the difference, or, in other words, the amount of the bet. For instance, a number of speculators, disposing of two or more millions in paper, obtained by offering the security of the gold which they propose to withdraw, begin buying at the first hour and continue buying until it is seen that a "descubierto" is produced and, as they keep on buying at rising prices, the gold which they propose to withdraw, if the "bears" have had it to deliver and have not, as his probable, liquidated the operation of paying differences at the last hour, serves for commencing with greater safety next day a new game for the rise which may be continued for several days, until the value of paper has been depreciated sufficiently, when they turn round and carry on for the fall, the operations being always effected for cash and the profits arising from the differences between the price of the first hour and that of the last moment, and also in the difference gained between the cost of the gold during the operation for the rise and that obtained for it during the operation for the fall.

Doubtless, there will always be speculation and gambling, but there is a positive advantage in suppressing on the Stock Exchanges even the hope of being able to "play differences" on the value of money, in order that the supply and demand of coin be made directly in the general market of the community, in which, if, as is possible, there should be speculation in gold, it may be counteracted by everyone, without recognizing the right of the Stock Exchanges to monopolize the operations which fix the relative value of paper money and gold.

The Patria Italiana suggests that the Committee named to collect subscriptions for the survivors of the Rosario Railway disaster should display a little more energy, as, up to the present the sufferers have received no aid of any kind from it.

INSPECTOR KORANDA AND THE PACIFIC RAILWAY — CUTTINGS FROM OUR EXCHANGES. QUOTATIONS OF RAILWAY-STOCK.

The Pacific Railway is getting into hot water, owing to the rather hasty conduct of one of its employees who refused to obey an order given by Inspector Koranda to have a carriage removed. The little quarrel took place on the 20th inst., and yesterday a copy of the inspector's report fell into our hands. The employee was certainly to blame in not paying all attention to the Inspector's order, and the Company would do well to bear in mind that the Inspector, in his sphere, like the President of the French Republic, is never in the wrong. We may add that the Inspector-General has advised the Board of Public Works to request the manager to dismiss the employee, whose obstinacy caused the whole row.

Further on in his report, the Inspector devotes a few lines to questions of greater moment. Owing to the damaged condition of the bed, the traffic on the line is still at a full stop. Between Soler and Cautiva, the line is in a terrible condition, but the manager has a large body of men repairing it, and intends raising the level in the first section.

Bravo! East Argentine. This much-maligned concern is coming to the front rapidly. It cleared exactly $5,559, and eight cents last December. The figures for January and February are not yet forthcoming, but it is a good sign to see the line making some effort to pay its way. The proportion of expenses was only 81 per cent. of the gross returns, which amounted to $29,500.

The net earnings of the French Company of Provincial Railways, Santa Fe, formerly Santa Fe Colonies Railway, amounted in January last to $32,885, the gross returns having been $101,154. The kilometrage covered by this line last month was 494,094, against 486,782 in January.

Dr. Araoz received a telegram yesterday from Inspector Fernandez announcing a serious derailment at Km. 6 Rio Cuarto. The accident took place on Tuesday at midnight. Five wagons,—the train was a goods' train—were reduced to matchwood. No loss of life.

The Railway Times of March 2nd, says :

On the week, Rosario has risen 4, ditto other issues ½, Buenos Ayres and Ensenada 1 to 3, Buenos Ayres Great Southern 2, ditto, extension 1890, 1, ditto ditto 1892 ½, Buenos Ayres and Pacific, Mercedes Extension debenture stock, Central Uruguay-East Argentine, ditto 1, whilst Porto Alegre and Mexican first preference have fallen 1, ditto ordinary and Cordoba Central ½, and Midland Uruguay ½.

According to a financial paper in Berlin the Sultan of Turkey has just sanctioned the constitution of the Joint Stock Company which the German Bank is about to form for the laying down and working of a railway, 460 kilometres in length, from Ismid to Angora, for which it has been granted the concession. The Ismid-Scutari line, 9 kilometres long, has already been worked by the German Bank since the 7th ult, after payment of the stipulated sum of 8,250,000f.

THE NATIONAL DFFENCE SCHEME.

£100,000,000 TO BE RAISED.

The London correspondent of the Manchester Courier has learned some details of what is believed to be the National Defence programme of the Government. If he is to be credited, it is in its magnitude and completeness great that has ever been adopted by any other. "There is no doubt (he says) that the report of Lord Hartington's Commission on this subject, together with the report of the admirals on last year's naval manœuvres, have had great weight with the Cabinet Committee which sat on the same subject. The Cabinet have now arrived at a decision based on the conclusions of the departmental inquiries which will be laid before Parliament very shortly. The total programme involves an expenditure of £100,000,000, which will be raised by means of a defence loan.

It is proposed to build before 1895 some twenty or twenty-two battleships on the lines of the latest ironclads, the Nile and the Trafalgar, and also to construct nearly fifty fast cruisers. It also follows as a matter of course that the torpedo-boats will be increased both in number and efficiency. The recent visits of the First Lord of the Admiralty, Captain Fisher (Director of Naval Odnance), and the Controller of the Navy (Admiral Hopkins) to Elswick, Manchester, and the various private shipbuilding yards were made with the object of ascertaining the capacities for carrying out the great programme which the Government have in view. The Government dockyards will be worked to their fullest extent, and every contractor in the kingdom who can take orders with a certainty of executing them promptly, will be certain to receive as many orders as he can fulfil

The guns for the land defences at home and abroad will be greatly increased in number, and the pattern will be of the latest and most effective description. The old muzzle-loaders will be taken away and breechloaders will be substituted for them, not only in the forts, but in the horse and field branches of the royal regiments of artillery. The new tests for steel that have been issued by the War Office this year, which proved such a great drawback to manufacturers in executing their orders for guns for both land and sea service, have now become understood, and the manufacturers are now able to work up to them, and they are confident of being able to turn out the orders that the Government have confidentially proposed to give to them.

The Stores Department of the War Office will be entirely reorganized, and the reserve of stores will be largely increased and placed under special store officers, who will be directly responsible for the efficiency of the services entrusted to their charge. Hitherto it has been a great complaint that whenever deficiences in military stores were discovered no one officer could be held to be directly responsible; but the reorganization indicated will now fix responsibility

The scheme is so vast that the Government factories at Woolwich. Enfield Weedon, and Birmingham will be quite unable to supply the stores and munitions to the War Office fast enough, and orders are to be given for cartridges, gunpowder, and small stores to contractors who can carry out the orders.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Bolsa was reopened yesterday, and so far as it is concerned, its role in the gold market is over. All the brokers and members wore a "And-doth-not-a-meeting-like-this-make-amends ? look on their countenances, and seemed happy.

We heard yesterday of a shocking affair that demands strict explanation by the authorities. On Sunday morning Annie Murphy, an Irish girl employed by Mrs. Perkins at Barracas, and of excellent character, came up town to visit her father and mother and give them ten dollars she had earned and saved since her arrival in the steamer Dresden. When going home after dusk she had to go along the railway for a short distance and fell, fracturing her skull. Two Japanese sailors who were passing saw the accident and rushed to help her; they were about to look for water for her when the police came up and arrested them for assaulting her, and then her, for being drunk!! They took her to the guardship, where the poor girl died, and was buried in her clothes. except her stays and boots, by which her broken-hearted mother knew that the victim of this outrage on humanity was her daughter. But for the exertions of Messrs. Reid, Bridger, Patterson, Andrews and Bennett, the particulars of this inhuman case would probably never have come to light, and these gentlemen deserve public thanks.

A sporting subscriber sent us yesterday the results of the Swimming Races at Montevideo yesterday. The winners were: Day, 70 metres; Cooper, 210 metres; Poole, 350 metres; de Leon 70 metres; Miles ditto, Tub Race. There was a good attendance and everything went off leasantly.

Remate del centro agricola
General Paz
Autorizado por decreto del S. G. de la provincia de fecha 18 de Febrero 1888.
Los terrenos en que el centro General Paz esta autorizado se hallan situados en el deslinde del partido de Las Flores y Tapalque, entre las estaciones Pardo y Colorado del ferro-carril del Sud, distante 2 leguas de cada una de ellas.
Como se vé en el plano, esa distancia desaparecerá con la construccion de una via ferrea, que ligará el centro agricola con la estacion Pardo y que esta autorizada por el excelentisimo gobierno.
En el campo existen trescientos y tantos mil ladrillos para las obras de edificacion que deben hacerse en el pueblo; escuela, casa de policia, iglesia y casa municipal.
Las tierras pel centro agricola General Paz todas vejetales y altisimas, en las lluvias torrenciales que han pasado son los unicos campos que no han sido inundados.
Verlos para convencerse de ello.
Las chacras están todas mensuradas y amojonadas reconociendo cada una de ellas una hipoteca al Banco Hipotecario con la cual el colono puede continuar á objeto de chancelarla en los años que debe durar ó bien llevantarla inmediatamente si asi le conviniera.
Los que tengan dinero y los que no lo tengan pueden comprar. Base de venta 60 pesos la hectarea.
Estos importantes tierras re remataran por Adolfo Bullrich y Cia.

El dia 7 de Abril
En el mismo centro, a las 2 de la tarde.
Tambien se remataran si hay interesados, una gran cantidad de utiles, instrumentos y maquinas valiosas de labranzo sin uso, muchos de ellos, aun no desempaquetados; madera, postes, alambre, animales, etc.
Al mismo riempo se rematara el magnifico palacio con 200 hectareas de tierras grandes alfalfares, galpones, caballeriza, cochera, carruajes, etc. etc., y animales finos, vacunos y lanar.

Luminous Phosphorus! Important to Invalids!
All Medical Authorities agree that Phosphorus, administered in its free—that is, unoxidised—state, is an unvaluable remedy in disorders of the Nervous System, especially in Loss of Nerve Power, Mental Depression, Incapacity for Work, Want of Energy, Neuralgia, Feeble Digestion, Loss of Physical Vigour. In these and other conditions indicating defective nutrition or exhaustion of the nervous centres, arising from over-work, the effect of climate, and other causes. It is the only effectual remedy.
The four great Remedies for Nervous Disorders
Phosphorus, Iron, Quinine and Nux Vomica
each in its proper dose, are prepared in combination, in the form of Compound Phosphorous Pills. They are coated to render them tasteless, and supply the best and safest means of administering the above powerful tonics.—Sold in bottles 3s. 5s. and 10s. (English money.) The 10s. bottle containing sufficient for a course of 3 weeks. Two 10s. bottles may be obtained direct from the makers' laboratory, carriage paid, by remitting Post-office order for 25s.

The Bolsa was reopened to-day at the usual hour. The old gold black-board still remains, but only sales of Cedulas are now marked on it. The months' liquidation in gold, as prescribed by the Minister, was begun, and possibly will end to-morrow; it is a very heavy business, and from what we can see this liquidation calls for an artificial demand for gold, as too many sold gold "short" during the month, which now must be bought back. The sales of gold in the street were at 157 cash and for end month; but gradually as the demand for the end of the month was felt prices advanced, and at 3 o'clock there were buyers in the street at 161 for end of month and few sellers. It is hinted that to facilitate the liquidation a pass of two points to the end of April must be paid, otherwise the parties who are to receive gold at the end of the month will insist on the gold, whilst if two points are paid the transaction will stand over for April.
The real tone of the market now centres in the paper rates of exchange. The following were to-day's rates:
Provincial Bank 3.10 fcs.
Banco Italia 3.07frs.
Banco Londres 3.08 frs.
English Bank 3.09 frs
London Bank 29¼d
English Bank 29¼d
Do do do 2.47 marks
The National Bank took one million francs at 3.15.
Discount brokers report no paper money to be had anywhere. No banks discounting.
Operations at the ring to-day were rather meagre in shares, considering the past days' inactivity, and the tendency of prices was rather for a fall than advance. It is said that some large houses who lent heavily on shares are now withdrawing the paper to metallize, and this, if true, will undoubtedly tell on the quotations, but it is as yet only a matter of rumour. In National Bank Shares, 1,900 were disposed of for end of month, opening at 262 and closing a point lower, whilst for April the quotation opened at 260, rose half a point, and closed at 260. La Plata Moles were quoted at 132, also for end of April. Credito Real declined a trifle, but Constructors kept up, closing at 125 for cash and 129 for end of April. Cedulas were quiet; National E improved to 80.50, and Provincial K to 80, but operations were for very small lots.
The following is a summary of operations effected this morning at the first ring:—

Freight contracts for maize shipping in May concluded at 19-20s. per ton, channel and orders. Bales for France 10 francs.
Mr. Maclean who has arrived down from the Colony Feliz de Azara in the Chaco on the Bermejo, reports 350 French colonists up there, and 2 English families. He says the camps are most fertile and beautiful and the maize crop keeps on all the year round. The colony belongs to the company, called Colonizadora Chaco Central that owns 124 square leagues. The colony is on the banks of Bermejo near Presidente Roca and 60 leagues from Rio Paraguay. A small steamer plies between the colony and Timbo in front of Humaita. Mr. Hume's railway from San Cristobal in Santa Fe to Roca will run through the colony land. We hope Mr. Maclean will favor us with a paper on this rising colony.
Mr. Owen from United States, who has arrived down from Matto Grosso, was welcomed. He leaves for the North West of the Republic to put up a gold mill for a French company having just put up a similar mill in Matto Grosso.
The Report of the "Compañia Muelles y depositos del Puerto de La Plata" was given round to-day. We note the Company holds 275,000 varas of land which they put down in their balance-sheet at 50 Nats. gold, and 213,000 varas at 35 Nats. gold, giving a total of 21,205,000 Nats. gold. They have also 1315 metres lineales of moles, valued at 630 Nats. gold per metre, representing 828,450 Nats. gold, making a total for these properties of 22,033.450 Nats. gold, nearly 4½ millions sterling, which shows the enormous values at the port of La Plata.
Hard dollars in London have fallen to 61, they were 75 last year when we were in London; but the gold stocks of the Argentine Republic have advanced. Provincial Cedulas, Serie I, have also fallen greatly in the London market and some lots are on the way out for delivery.
Mr. Bunge, we hear, is the consulting Director of the New London and South American Bank.
The "carta organica" of the Municipal Loan and Savings' Bank was handed round to-day. It is got up in neat book form and is nicely printed. As is already known, this new establishment is to take the place of the old familiar Monte Pio, but on a larger and sounder scale, and the project has now received full sanction. The loan capital is half a million dollars, and no loan can exceed 1,000 dollars, for which two signatures are necessary. All other establishments of this nature, pawnbrokers, etc., are abolished under penalty.
Three of the members of the Camara Sindical have resigned their seats on the board to express their dissatisfaction at the action taken by the latter with the Finance Minister, The resigning members are Rodriguez Larreta, Delpor Delvalle, and Marcelino Ugarte; they will be replaced by Messrs. P. Ramella and Emiliano Diaz.
The amount of gold shipped by the Lamport and Holt packets alone this month represents 950 thousand dollars and 312 thousand pounds sterling.
Mr. Julian Corniani C.E. was welcomed to-day from Corrientes where he is actively engaged in the construction of Clark's railways. He reports that with improved facilities of communication and transport and a continuance of steady government there can be little doubt that Corrientes will forge its way into the front rank of Argentine provinces for which its resources and qualities naturally fit it. Mr. Corniani adds that the progress of the province since the starting of the railway is already most appreciable. Bella Vista is booming ahead under steady influx of colonists, and the government is fomenting progress in every way. Several handsome public buildings are in course of construction. Mr. Corniani returns soon to Corrientes whence he will favor us with further advices as opportunity offers.
A decree was issued to-day approving the contract of Mr. John Canals to complete the Rosario Port-Works, which have been paralyzed for some time. According to the contract, the contractor must finish the first section within 3 years, but this term, under certain circumstances, may be extended two years longer. Mr. Canals will enjoy the right of working the port.
The Royal Mail packet La Plata brings £90,000 for this market.
Business in shares at the second ring which lasted from 3 to 5 p. m. was still poor in quantity, but prices reacted violently all round, showing that there is much money going into stocks now. National Bank Shares opened at 261, advanced to 265 and closed half a point lower for end of month whilst for end of April the rate opened at 260, advanced to 264½ and closed at 263½; there were sellers over for end of month, but there were also many buyers for end of April, and it is calculated that rates will still advance, as there is money to be made by the pass from month to month, the 5 o/o dividend falling due. All the other stocks shared in the advance. Credito Real closing at 135 for to-morrow and Constructors at 126, whilst for end of month Bolsa Bank Shares were done at 57 and Catalinas at 153. There was heavy sales of La Plata Moles for April at 132 to 133, closing at 132½.
In exchange there seems to be very little doing. Drawers asked to-day 46⅞, and there is little inclination to work in paper.
The banks refuse to look at pagares for the moment. Gold was freely offered on shares to-day but paper was not to be had and was quoted at one time up to 12 o/o, whilst specie was offered at 10 and 11 o/o.
With regard to the liquidations the matter is still under consideration. The brokers handed in their settlements for last Saturday to-day, but the liquidator would neither pay nor receive differences until he is fully instructed by the Chamber on the point.
The following is a summary of operations effected this evening at the second ring:—

The s.s. Leibnitz arrived yesterday in Montevideo from Antwerp and Southampton, with dates to 2nd inst. She will be up to-morrow with 59 passengers and 2112 tons cargo.
The s.s. La Plata arrived in to-day, and if all goes well she will be given entry to-morrow, as at Rio she barely landed passengers and cargo. She leaves on the 2nd of April a full ship both as regards passengers and cargo.
Freights are reported much improved; 10 francs is now asked for end month, 4 dollars for Brazil. There is said to be much more offering for shipment and going forward. The rate has been down to 7 francs.
There is no department in the whole National Administration where the officials are so polite and painstaking as in the Immigration Office, but there is lack of energy and organization that is most highly prejudicial to the best interests of the Nation. The English families per German steamer Donan are now nearly three weeks in the Hotel when by right they might have been despatched for one of the colonies the very first day if only the proper steps had then been taken. Dr. Quirno Costa promised the English Aid Committee in their session of 25th ult. that Government would supply everything necessary for the proper starting of future settlers yet it is only now that Mr Sunblad, the very polite comisario, has received positive orders to supply same, which of course cannot be done in a day. Meantime sickness has broken out amongst the people, which threatens to assume the dimensions of an epidemic to the imminent risk of the entire city population. Surely some effort should be made to remove the danger at once. Our magnanimous friend Dn Marcos Magnasco, following Mr Seoane's generous example, has offered to supply medicines free and even prepare a small box of general patent cures for the colony of Naposta.
The Dutch barque Delfin has foundered off Esquina, Corrientes.
The s.s. Perseo arrived to-day in Montevideo; she brings 1000 immigrants for this port.
The s.s. Bellendon is expected to-day from Antwerp and Liverpool with 4000 tons cargo.
The s.s. John Elder's passengers are expected up to-night.
The s.s. Potosi left Lota on Thursday, 21st, and is expected in Montevideo on Saturday, leaving on same day for Europe.
The s.s. Teviotdale is expected in the roads to-morrow, consigned to Messrs. Morgan and Smith, shipbrokers.
The s.s. Zarate, consigned to Messrs. W. Samson and Co., arrived safely in port to-day. The salvage of this vessel at Isla de Lobos was effected by Lussich Hnos.
We have received the following from Mr. David L. Dance, purser of the Royal Mail s.s. La Plata:—
"R.M.S. La Plata, Montevideo,
"March 26th, 1889.
"To the Editor of the Standard,—
"Sir,—I have to remind you of the arrival of this ship at Montevideo at 10 p.m. yesterday, all well, under the command of Captain J. D. Spooner, bringing mails, passengers, a general cargo, and having the following dates:—Southampton, 28th of February, Vigo 3rd March, Lisbon 4th March, St. Vincent 9th March, Pernambuco 15th March, Bahia 17th March, Rio Janeiro 22nd March.
"Fine weather has been experienced throughout the voyage.
"I herewith enclose a list of passengers.
"I am, sir, yours truly,
"DAVID L. DANCE, Purser."
Passengers arrived per s.s. La Plata:—
1st Class—James Smyth, Mr. Herne, Mrs. McGouran and child, F. Woodgate, E. Wancklyn, Mrs. Seddon, G. A Pemberton, D. H. Johnstone, W. J. Fricker, W. Neilson, F. Jacobson, N. Gylding, J. C. Reeve.
2nd. Class—H. Lawrence, H. Hutchence, W. Holloway, C. Wharton, H. A. Dals, J. D. Pryce, — Buttery, D. A. Harper, W. A. Harper, George Loft, José Antonio Diaz, and 91 third class.
The following interesting data relative to the value of property in the capitals of Europe will tend to enlighten many who labour under the conviction that central sites in this city are at an unprecedented value. The maximum value in London per square metre is 12,000 francs, in Paris 11,000, in Berlin 10,000, in Vienna 8,000; although there is much disparity in the ratio of population, there is little difference in the price. During the last 20 years prices have risen as follows: In London 2,500 o/o, in Paris 1,900 o/o, in Berlin 1,890 o/o, and in Vienna 1,500 o/o. Thus it can be seen for the first and most promising city in South America there is still much margin for advance in values, and in case the comparison of Buenos Aires with European capitals be considered out of place, it is only necessary to add that Melbourne has still the advantage of us in record price.
The following sales of real-estate have been effected:—
Zeballos 1760, 14x18 metres for 22,000 m/n.
Chacabuco 1487-89, 15x22 metres for 14,000 m/n.
Piedad 1628, 8x49 metres for 14,100 m/n.
Nueva Granada, between Charcas and General Mansilla, 8x15 metres for 2,856 m/n.
